COMMENTAIRE DU COURTIER:

This Italian built Alena 56 is a smooth and elegant Hard Top full of innovative ideas including a hydraulically extendable stern sundeck, adjustable helm seats and retractable cockpit table, not to mention the very large openable hard top sunroof together with her side windows. All in all a success from the Innovazioni e Progetti shipyard who has produced this modern and comfortable three cabin plus crew version Alena 56 fitted out in American cherry wood.
